Mrs. D. C. Blair
Montour Falls
New York.

Treasure Island,
Stony Creek, Conn.,
28 June, 1910.

Dearest Blaire,

I thank you for the laundry & the time-tables. The first was most acceptable, and the second saved me telephoning into New Haven to find out how to get home.

Well, family, I shall be with you in time for supper Thursday night.
And be prepared, Mutter, for a good healthy appetite. For I have just that also a goodly reddish hue on the arms and neck.

I am so pleased with my plans for coming home, for I shall see the church where Miss Streibart works. She and I leave here

Wednesday afternoon getting into New York sometime in the evening, about 10:30 she just said. We go right to her apartments at the parish house where she has offered to put me up for the night. At 10:00 the next morning, I leave West 23rd Street for home. I am coming on the Lackawanna Limited so that seems to make the best time.
I get in Elmira at 4:33 and if I get the 4:30 car, will see you at 6:45. I'll be home by 7:00 anyway so don't eat all the supper.

Every minute is taken up here as I can't possibly write the news, at present I am taking Jean's free hours - therefore, the chance to scribble of a few lines. I am so happy down here - wouldn't give up these two weeks for any two weeks I ever had. The very best part of the whole day comes after the crowd has gone to bed, and Jean, Harriet + I, Gladys (Miss Streibert in other words), and I go out on the rocks & watch the moonlight on the water, and talk. It is so lovely out there where everything is quiet that we stay up until all hours. The first night Miss Streibert's sister, the Wellesley Miss Streibert, was here we sat out there until after 12:00 talking philosophy.

I was never so interested in philosophy as I was then, and I never felt so well acquainted with Gladys & Min Streibert - when you discuss the philosophy folks live by you get right down to what they really are.

So much to do that I must scold! Harriet & I got up at 6:00 this a. m. & rode over to Stony Creek with Mrs. Martin before breakfast.

Must learn my part for a play to be given tomorrow. Mr. Howe the leading part & don't know my lines yet.

Love to all,

Eleanor.
